

Rain Steam Speed

4 September 2026
Aenaos Records

"A deft blend of dense gothic overtones and post-punk pop, a fine balance of haunting melodies and instant attraction."

— The Big Takeover

"The production walks a tightrope between grandeur and restraint. His writing keeps its feet planted firmly in the human condition."

— Mystic Sons

"Still rather hazy and expansive, steeped in gorgeous soundscapes and new wave coolness. A newly-found kaleidoscopic flair that enhances the project's overarching identity."

— Mesmerized

"The record doesn't grab you - it simply stands at the far end of the corridor, hands in pockets, knowing you'll come looking."

— Ottic Media

BIOGRAPHY

Nils Lassen is a distinguished Danish composer, producer, and multi-instrumentalist whose extensive career spans music, film, and innovative sound production. As the head of Ambassador Studios, Lassen has developed a diverse portfolio that seamlessly blends classical, electronic, and experimental genres. His proficiency with both guitar and keyboard is a defining feature of his intricate compositions. His wide-ranging career has taken him from children's music to Lars von Trier's / Zentropa's adult films, and to stage plays at the Royal Danish Theatre.

In 1993, Lassen composed the score for the critically acclaimed film De skrigende Halse, a project that showcased his ability to convey profound emotional depth through music. Beyond film scoring, Lassen has released music under the pseudonym (((S))), with the 2009 album Ghost - named Best Album of the Year by Mick Mercer - achieving global recognition and solidifying his reputation as a unique voice in the music industry. Lassen's collaborative endeavors include co-founding the dream-pop duo BlackieBlueBird with vocalist Heidi Lindahl. The duo's work is characterized by ethereal soundscapes, poetic lyrics, and minimalist instrumentation, with albums like Grace & Gravity reflecting themes of melancholy and introspection.

In November 2024, Lassen released the single Close Those Ocean Eyes, a hauntingly beautiful sea ballad that blends myth and mystery. The track offers a first glimpse into his upcoming solo album, following two decades of internationally recognized music releases. The song draws listeners into a captivating seafaring soundscape, echoing Homer's Odyssey, with touches of Edgar Allan Poe's dark romanticism and a hint of Moby-Dick. Continuing his solo journey, Lassen released The Miracle in May on February 21, 2025. This single further showcases his evocative artistry, weaving a haunting love song rich in atmosphere and mystery. Drawing inspiration from legendary filmmakers such as Carl Theodor Dreyer, Ingmar Bergman, and Michelangelo Antonioni, Lassen crafts a mesmerizing sonic landscape steeped in cinematic tension.

Lassen's ability to fuse genres and emotion has made him a distinctive figure in contemporary music. His innovative artistry continues to captivate audiences worldwide.

DISCOGRAPHY

Rain Steam Speed	Album	2026
Somersault	Single	2026
Under Your Spell	Single	2026
Hvem er jeg?	Album	2025
Fingerprints	Album	2025
Fingerprints	Single	2025
The Miracle In May	Single	2025
Close Those Ocean Eyes	Single	2024
Da Gud Var Dreng	Single	2016
Forår I Mågernes Himmel	Single	2016
Æggesweatre	Single	2016
Revolutionær	Single	2016

LISTEN & FOLLOW

Bandcamp	Spotify	Apple Music
Tidal	YouTube	SoundCloud
Instagram	Facebook

CONTACT

LABEL / PRESS

Aenaos Records
info@aenaos-records.com